

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Harmony, a literary journal of essays, short stories, poetry, visual art, and photography is a publication of Arizona's College of Medicine Program in Medical Humanities. Students, faculty, and staff of the Colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Public Health are encouraged to submit original, unpublished work to our journal, however, anyone may submit work. Work on all themes and topics will be considered, especially those related to the world of medical humanities. Failure to adhere to the following guidelines may result in the piece not being considered:

Written Work:

1. All written submissions should be no more than 5,000 words.
2. Work must be titled, double-spaced, 12 point font, and with the title and page number as headers on each page.
3. Previously published work will not be considered.
4. Submissions are accepted either via email or regular mail.
5. Submissions should include on a separate cover letter the author's name, mailing address, email address, phone number AND indicate if the work has a copyright.
6. Any work submitted by mail should also include a copy on a CD.
7. The preferred file form for documents is Microsoft Word.

Visual Work:

1. Artwork submitted electronically is preferable in a .tif file, CMYK, and 300 dpi
2. All work must be titled otherwise they will not be accepted.
3. Submissions should include on a separate cover letter the author's name, mailing address, email address, phone number AND indicate if the work has a copyright.

Each published contributor will receive two copies of the journal. Thank you for your interest and submission to Harmony
